

FOOD & WINE

SEPTEMBER 2009

home cooking
at its best

recipes from a tuscan cooking so

best california
wines $15 &
under

{ TRAVEL TIPS }

the best of southern maine

WHERE TO STAY

Hidden Pond A new resort with 14 cottages and an organic garden. From $395; 354 Goose Rocks Rd., Kennebunkport; hiddenpondmaine.com.

WHERE TO EAT

Arrows Chefs Clark Frasier and Mark Gaier's restaurant is renowned for its huge vegetable garden. 41 Berwick Rd., Cape Neddick; 207-361-1100.

MC Perkins Cove A bistro from the chefs at Arrows. 111 Perkins Cove Rd., Ogunquit; 207-646-6263.

Nunan's Lobster Hut A no-frills, seasonal, cash-only spot for Maine lobster. 9 Mills Rd., Kennebunkport; 207-967-4362.

Old Vines A new wine bar from Mike Farrell, an alum of New York City's Eleven Madison Park. 173 Port Rd., Kennebunk; 207-967-2310.

The White Barn Inn Chef Jonathan Cartwright cooks modern American cuisine. 37 Beach Ave., Kennebunk Beach; 207-967-2321.

WHAT TO DO

Liquid Dreams Surfing lessons, wetsuits included. $60; liquiddreamssurf.com.

Schooner Eleanor Two-hour sails on a 55-foot ship. $40; 207-967-8809.

Stonewall Kitchen Cooking School Guest chefs teach at this new school next to the shop. Classes from $35; stonewallkitchen.com.

*Green goddess
chicken salad, perfect
with Pinot Noir*

RECIPE P.142